

Chapter 12.24

HOUSE NUMBERING

Sections:

12.24.0 10 Decimal system to be used.

12.24.020 Size and placement of numbers.

12.24.030 How property is to be numbered.

12.24.040 Assignment of numbers.

12.24.050 Adjustment in case of conflict.

12.24.060 Penalty for violation.

12.24.010 Decimal system to be used. The system of numbering buildings shall be the decimal system, one hundred numbers being assigned to each block. The odd numbers shall be on the west side of all north and south streets and on the south side of all east and west streets. For the east and west streets the numbers shall begin at the Louisville and Nashville Railroad tracks and the numbers for the north and south streets shall begin at the Norfolk and Western Railroad tracks. (Prior code § 17.401).

12.24.020 Size and placement of numbers. The figures of all numbers shall be at least three inches in length and shall be legible and placed in a conspicuous place at the side or above the front door of the building. (Prior code § 17.402).

12.24.030 How property is to be numbered. Each twenty- five feet of ground shall be counted as one number in all parts of the city except where buildings are erected on less than twenty-five feet of ground, in which case each building shall be counted as one number. (Prior code § 17.406).

12.24.040 Assignment of numbers. The city clerk shall have the responsibility to cause the local postmaster to assign each house its proper house number when requested by the owner or occupant. The owner or occupant shall number the house within thirty days after notice of the assignment of the house number, except that when any subdivider who desires annexation to the city has a proposed house numbering system which will conform as nearly as possible to the present system now in force, then such proposed numbering system shall be reviewed by the local postmaster for approval or modification. (Ord. 81-68 § 1, 1980: prior code § 17.403).

12.24.050 Adjustment in case of conflict. In all cases where there is a conflict in numbers, the city clerk shall direct and make the proper adjustment of the same. (Prior code § 17.407).

12.24.060 Penalty for violation. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a fine as provided in Section 1.12.010. (Prior code § 17.408).